

2012 Baton Rouge Poll

N=333

Conducted by the Students of
Sociology 2211, “Sociological Methods”

LSU

Rick Weil

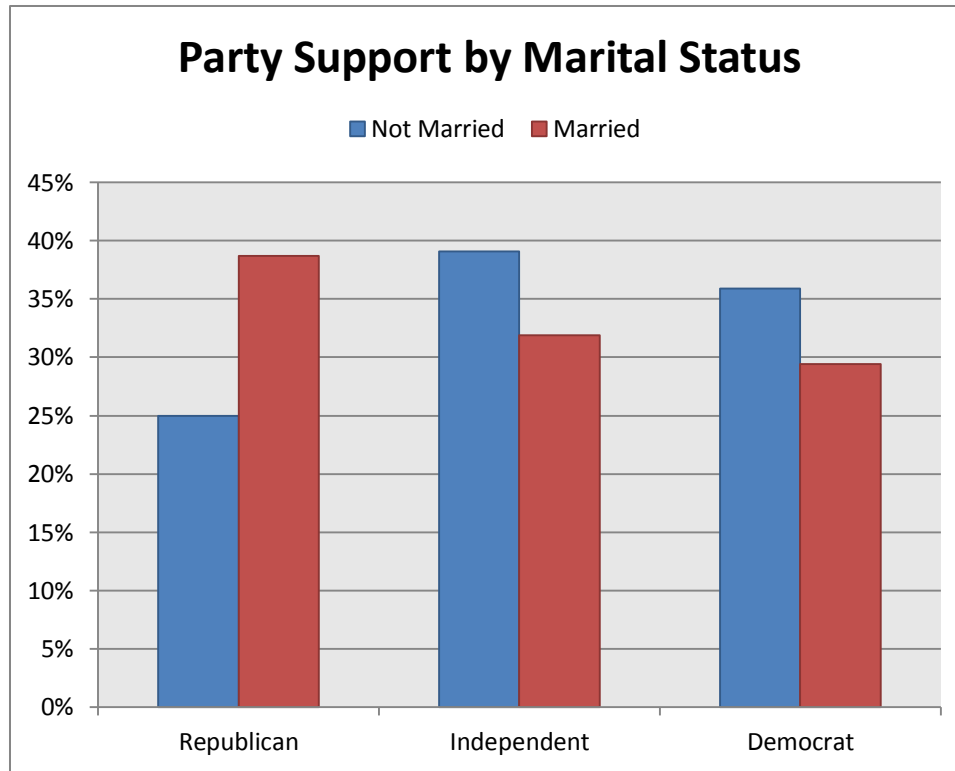

Marital Effects

Timothy David

Rebecca Pearson

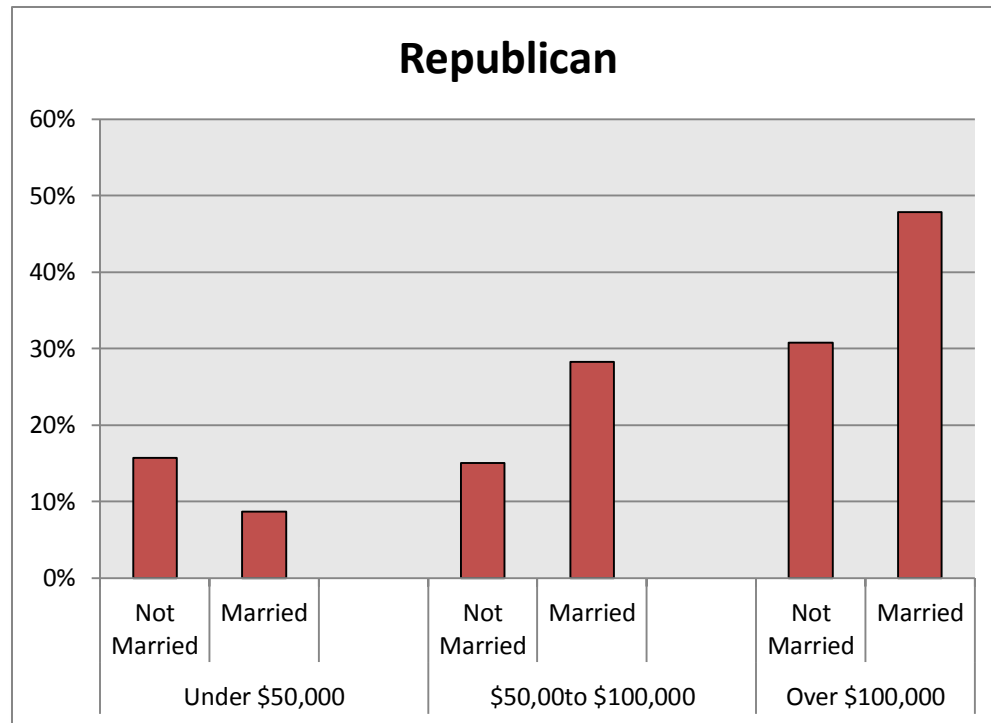

Audra Swisher

Party Support and Marital Status

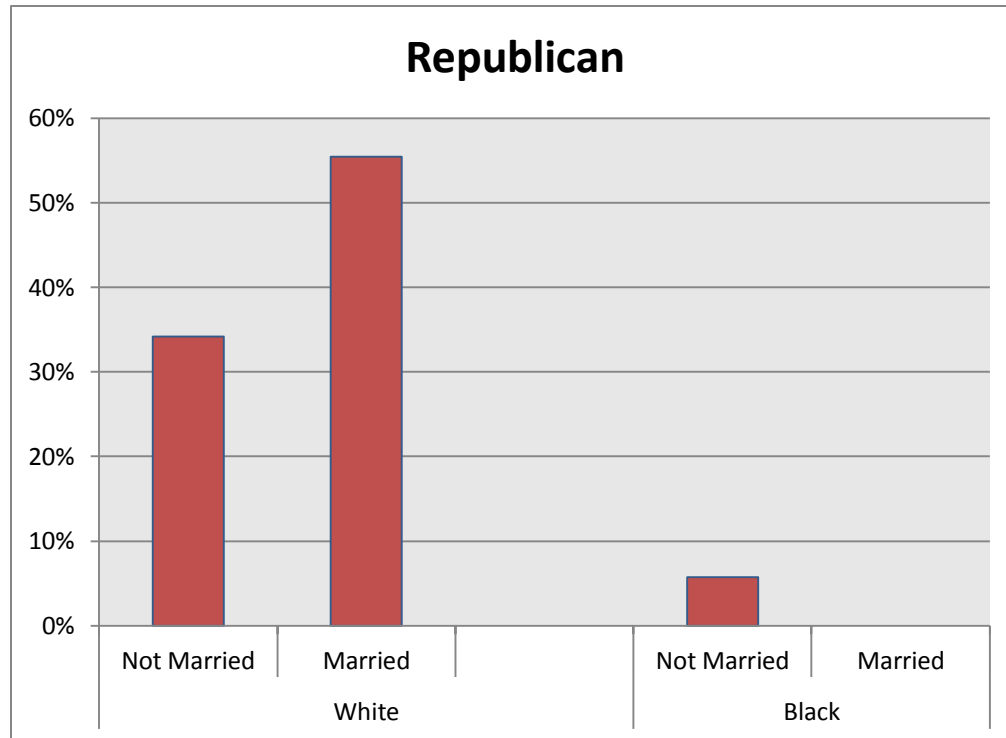

Married people are more Republican

Party Support and Marital Status

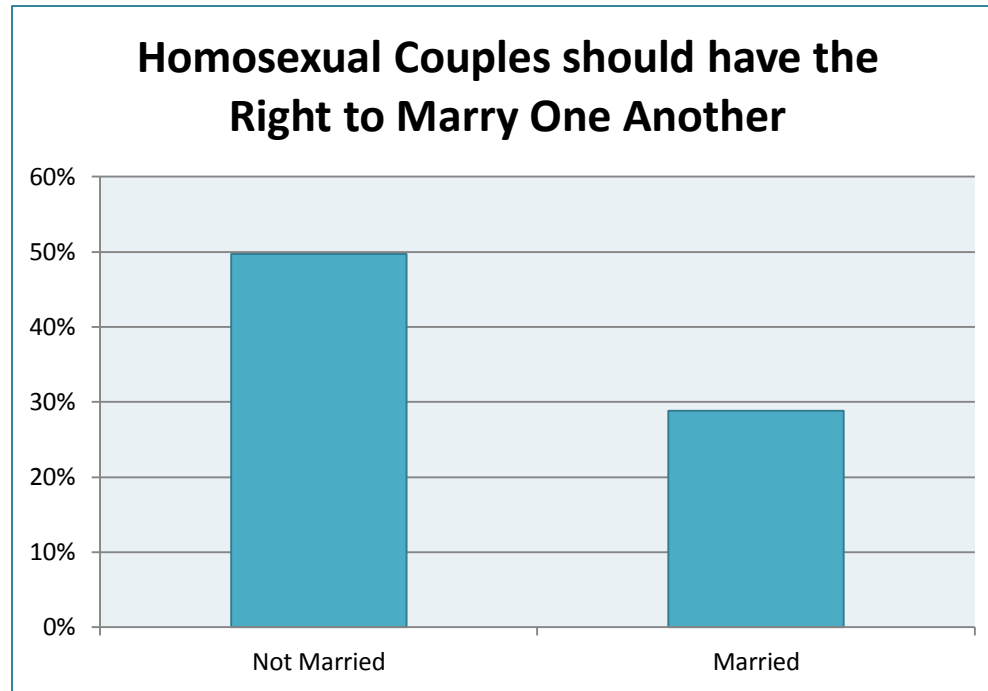

Married people are more Republican ...
Mainly at higher income levels

Party Support and Marital Status

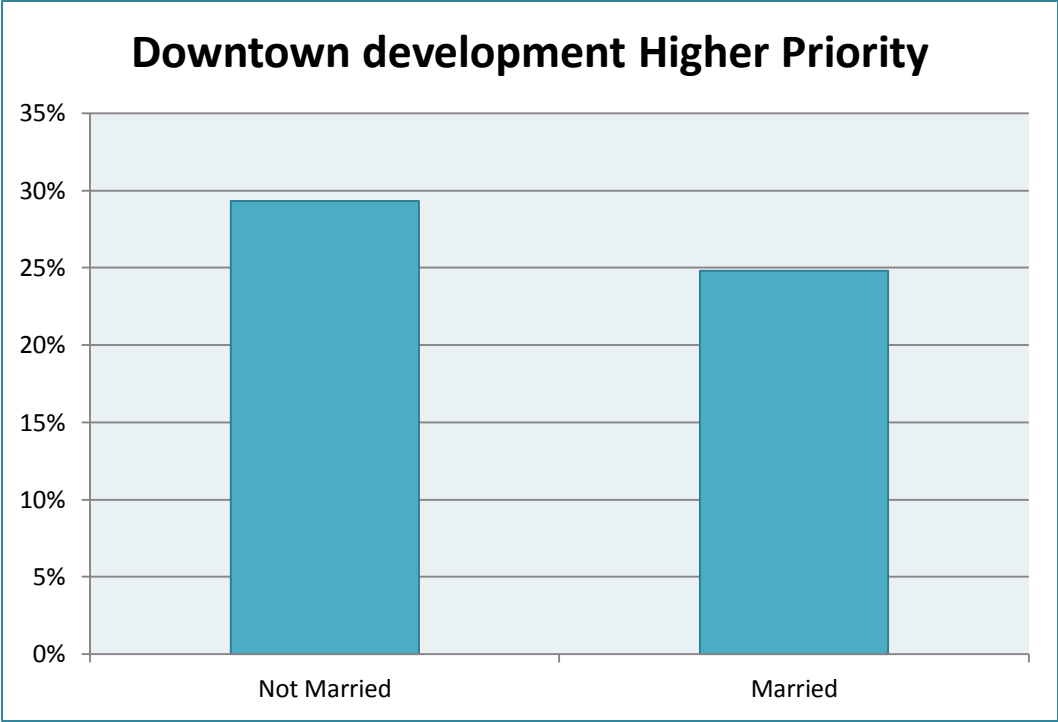

Married people are more Republican ...
Mainly among Whites

Gay Rights and Marital Status

Downtown Development and Marital Status

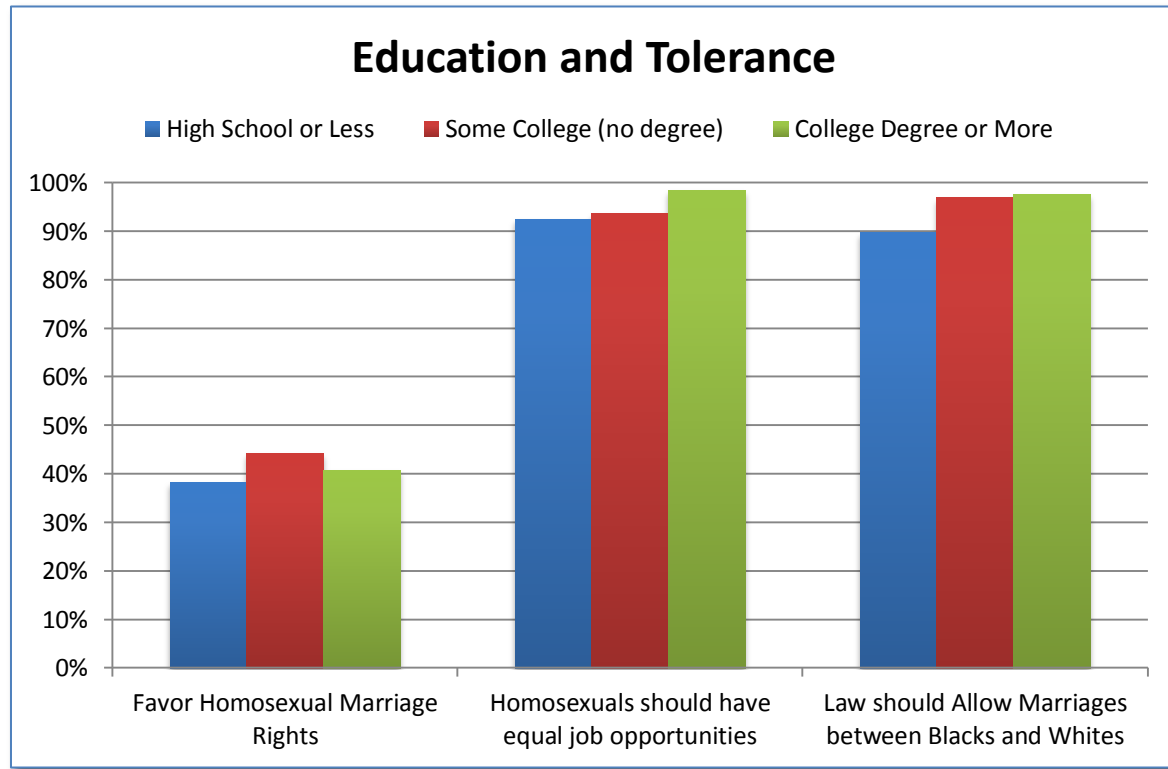

Tolerance

Amanda Davis

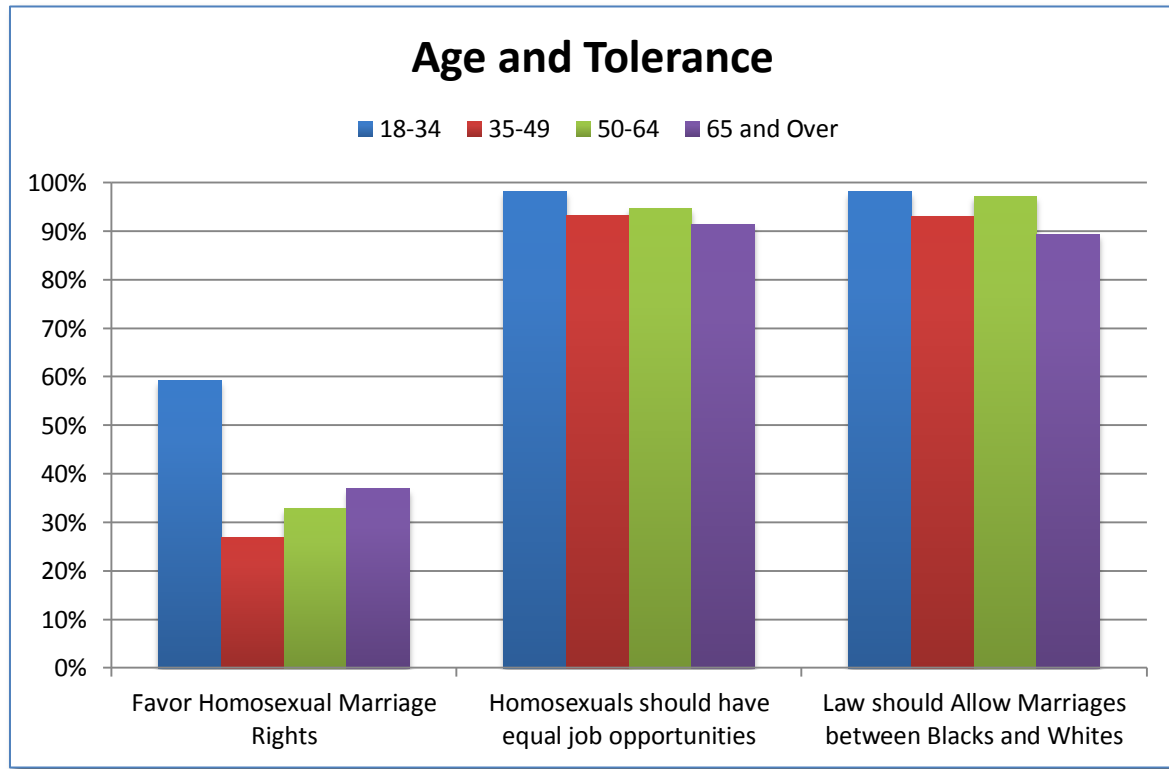

Hannah Henry

James Young

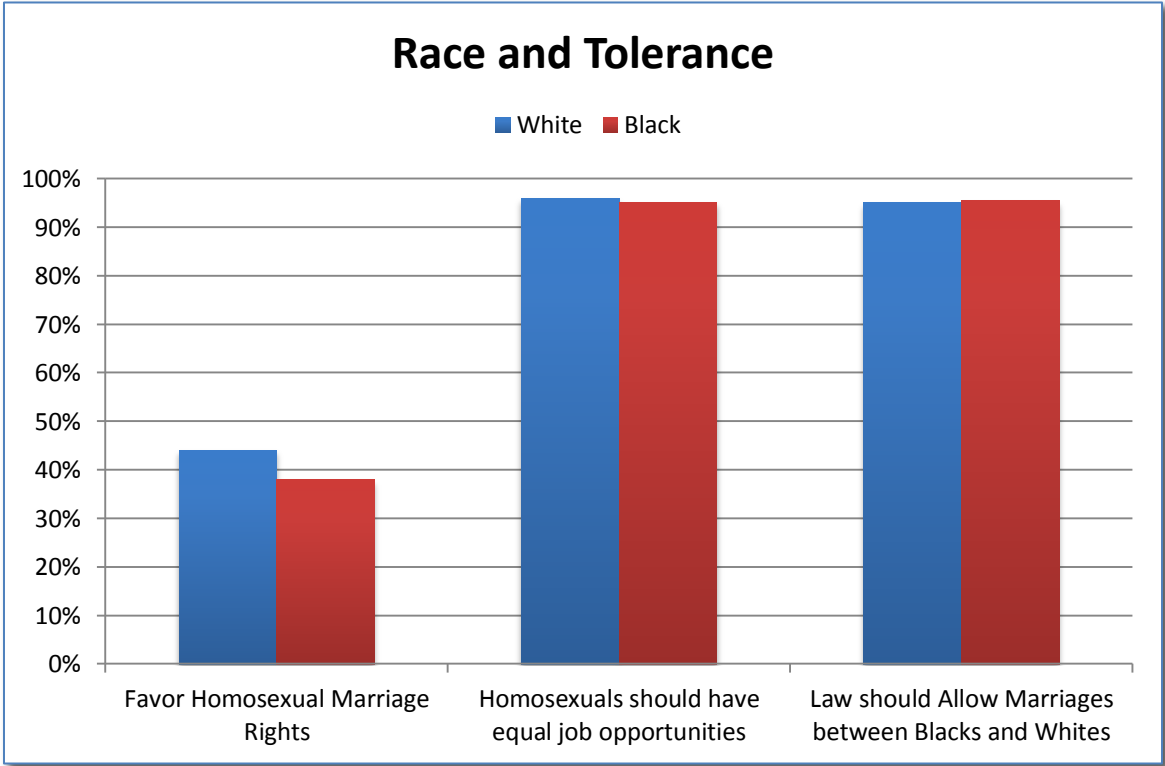

Education and Tolerance

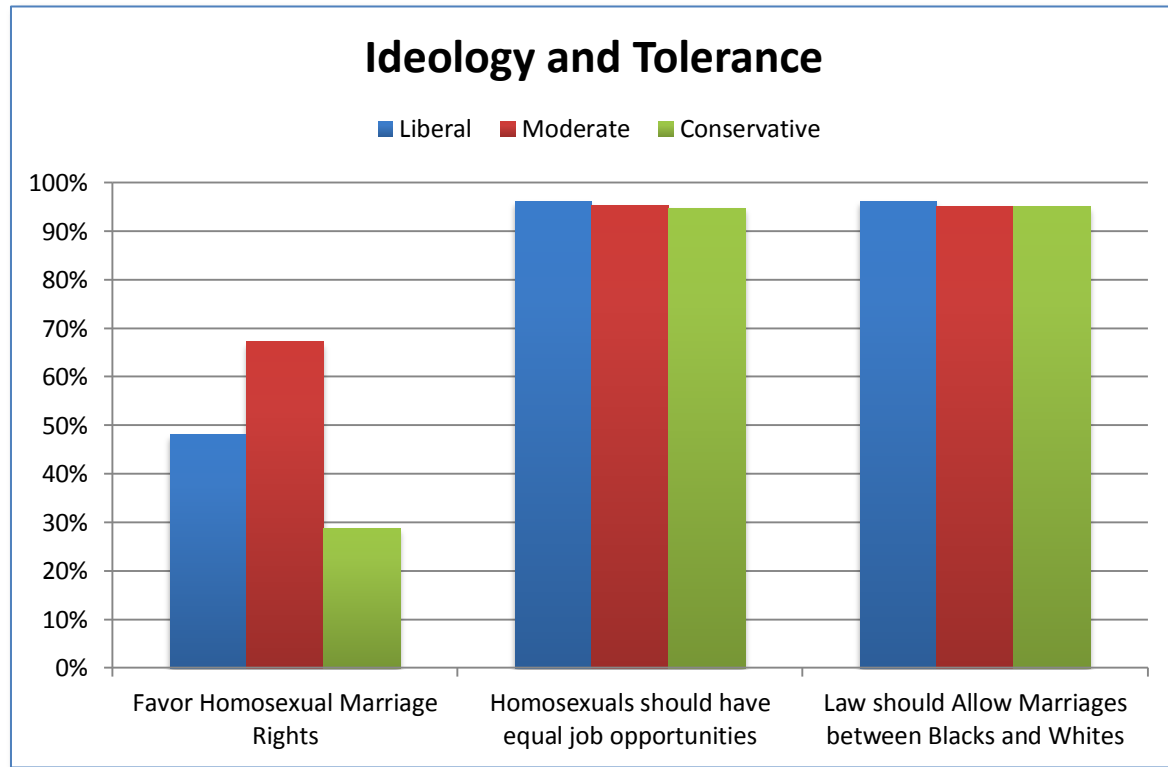

Age and Tolerance

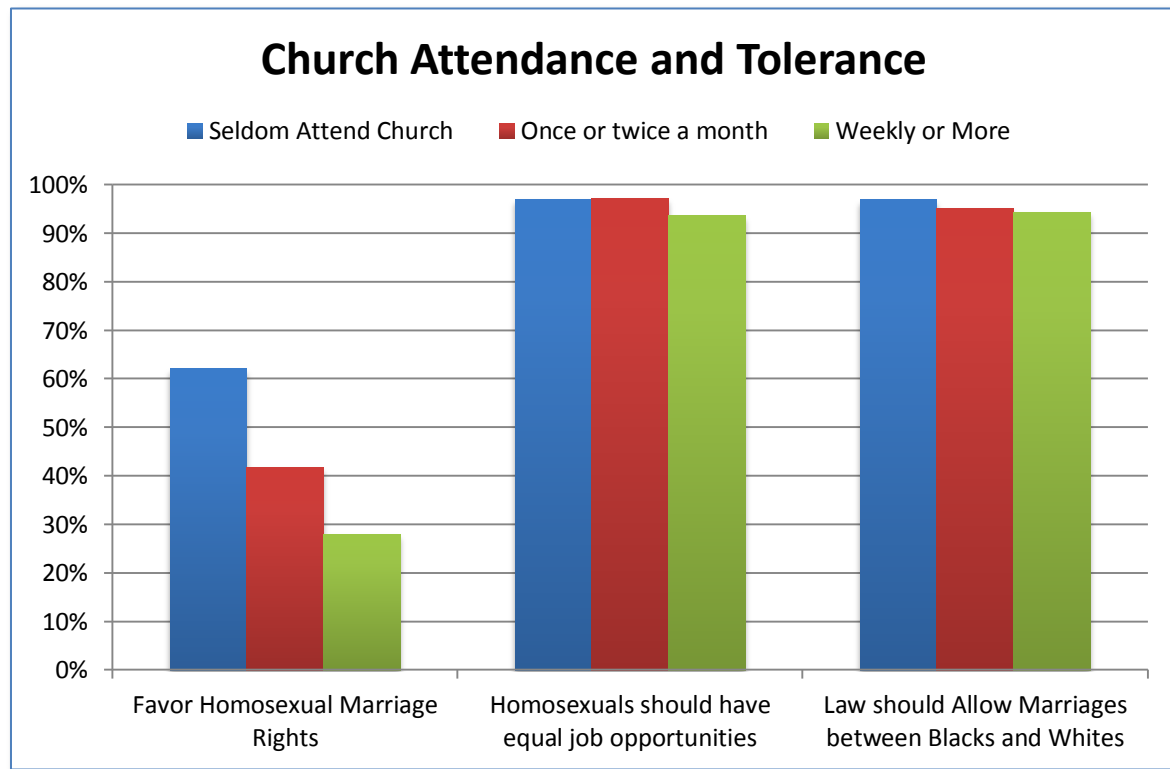

Race and Tolerance

Ideology and Tolerance

Church Attendance and Tolerance

Response to Crime

Simone Heyward

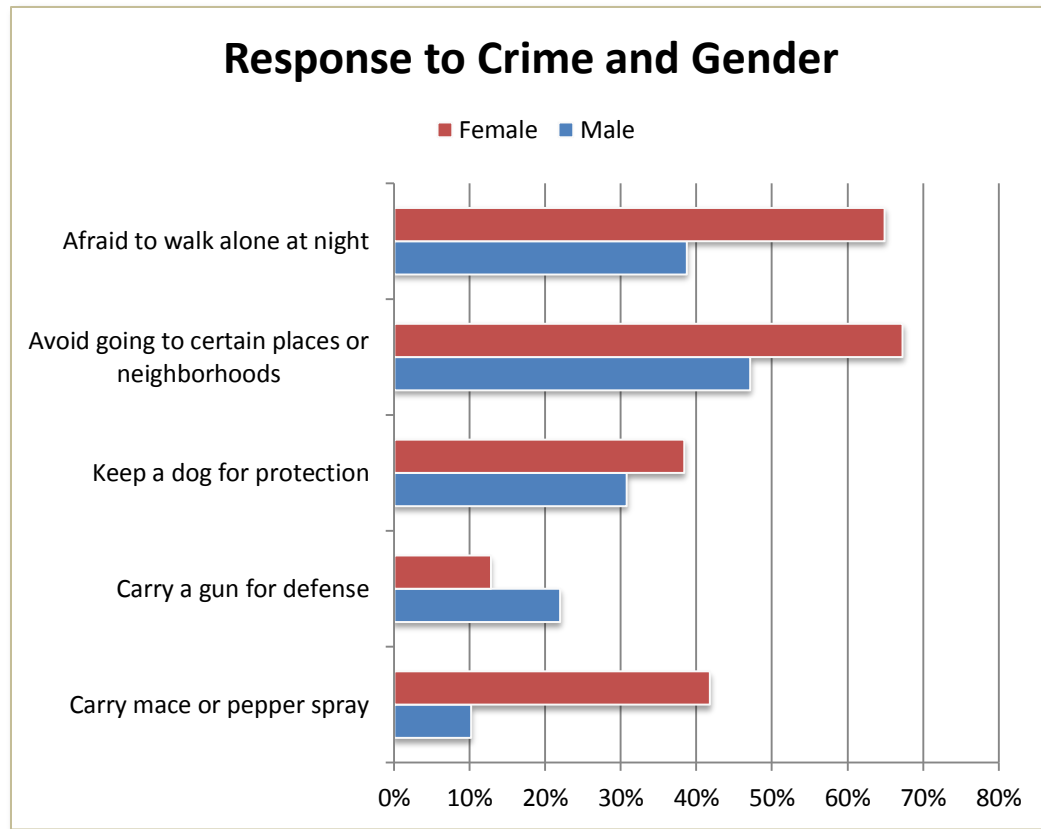

Adam Laureano

Taylor McElroy

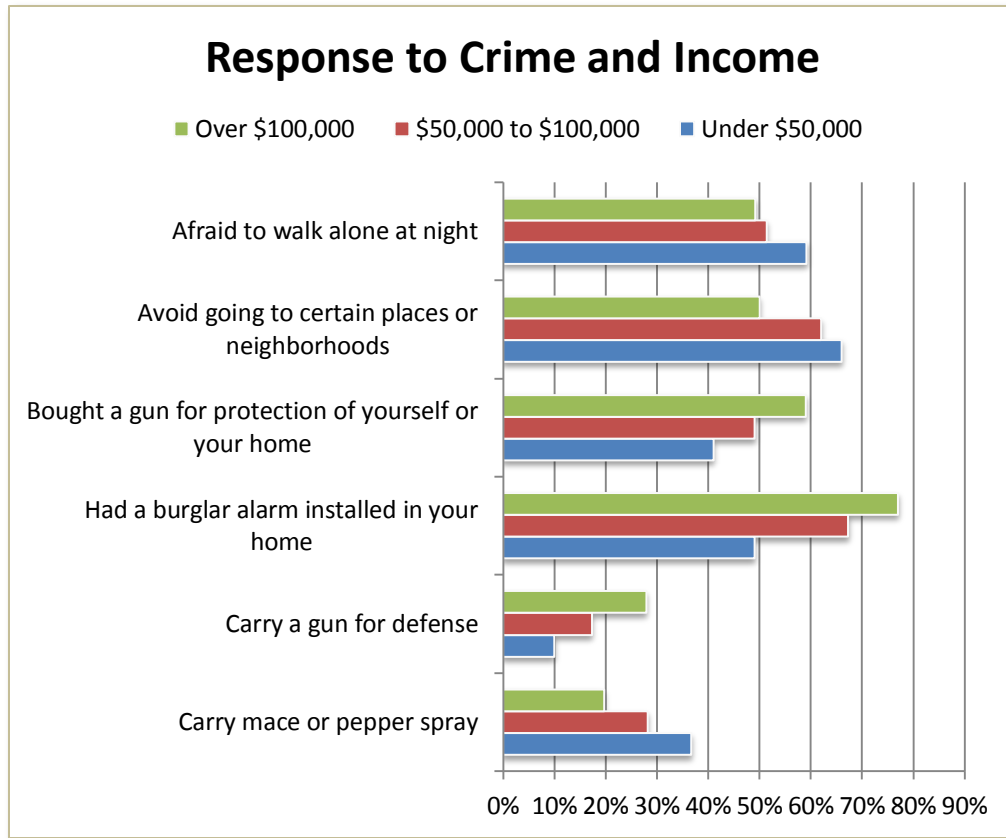

Angelica Nguyen

Crystal Scott

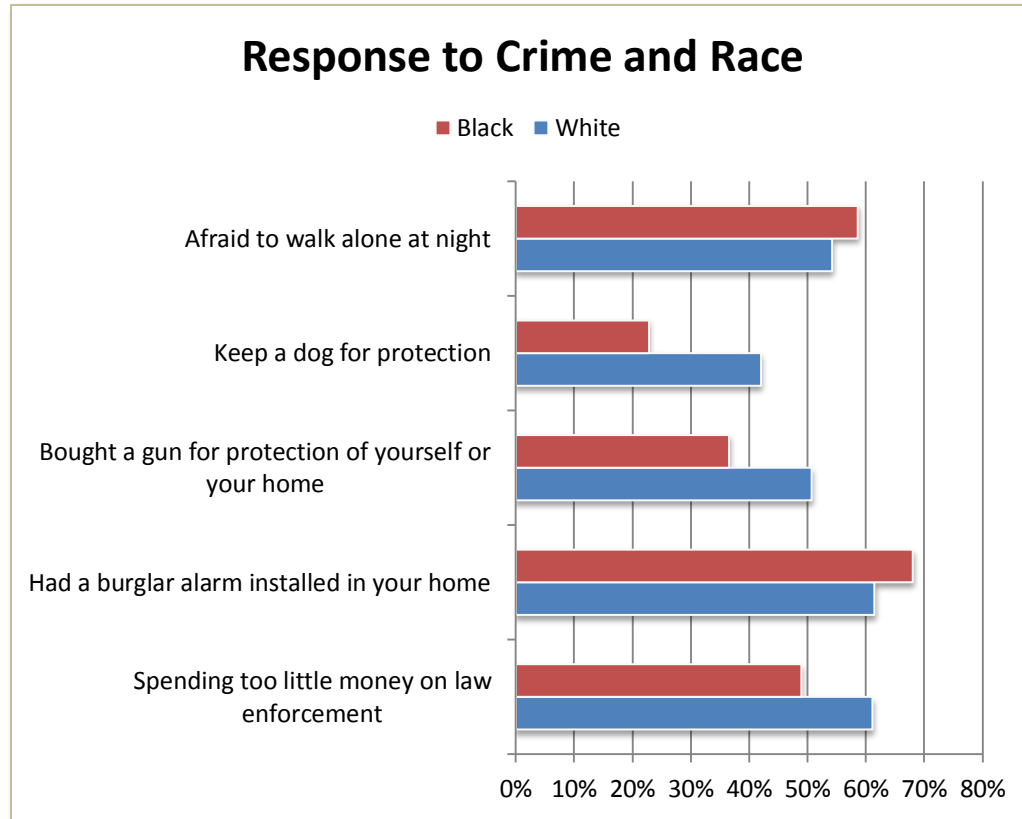

Response to Crime and Gender

Response to Crime and Income

Response to Crime and Race

Race

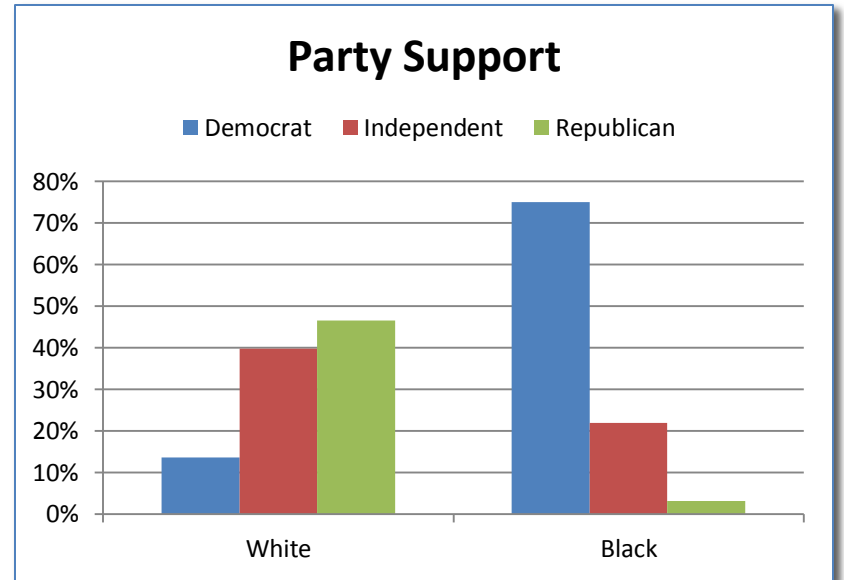

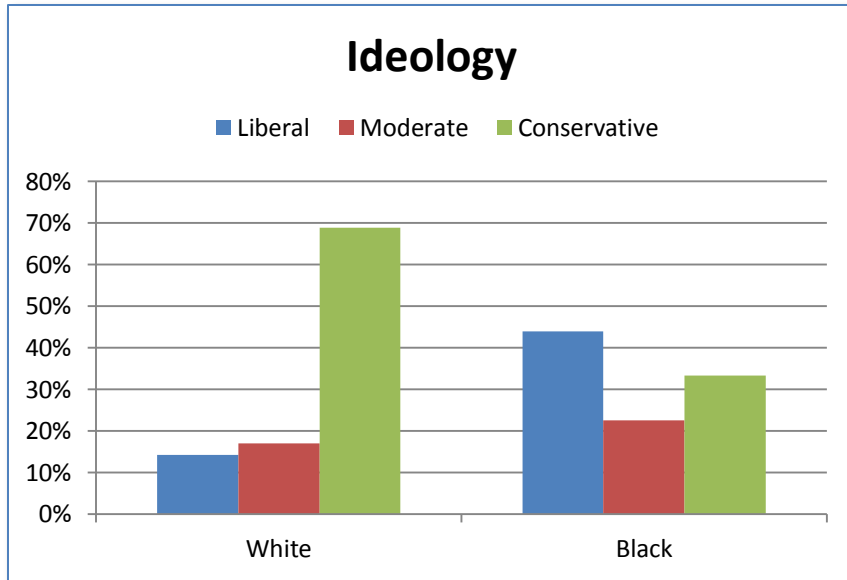

Kristin Foltz

Brittany Henagan

Laura Pignato

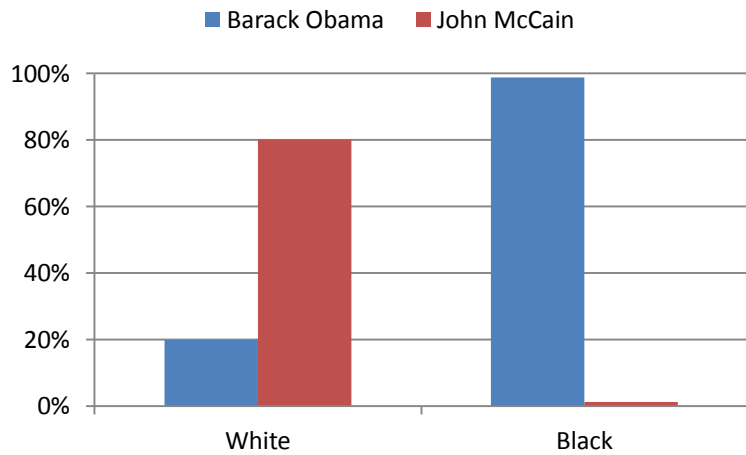

Matthew Sledge

Race and Politics

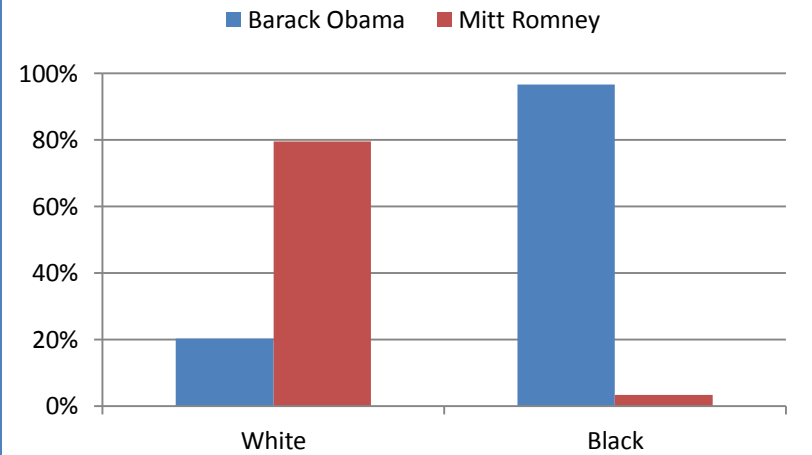

Race and Vote

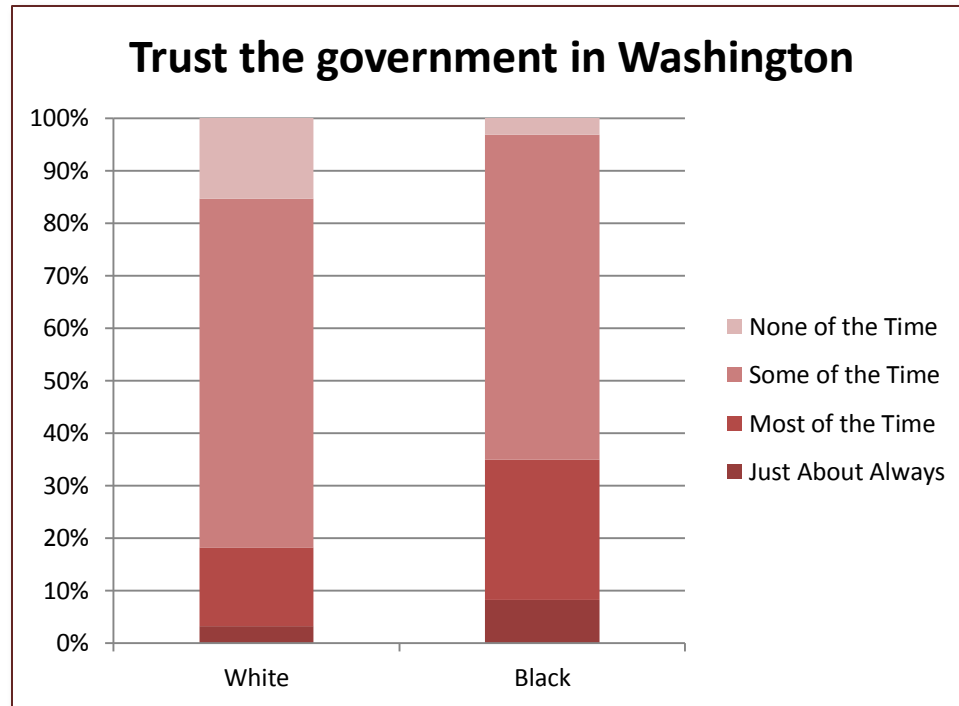

How did you Vote in 2008?

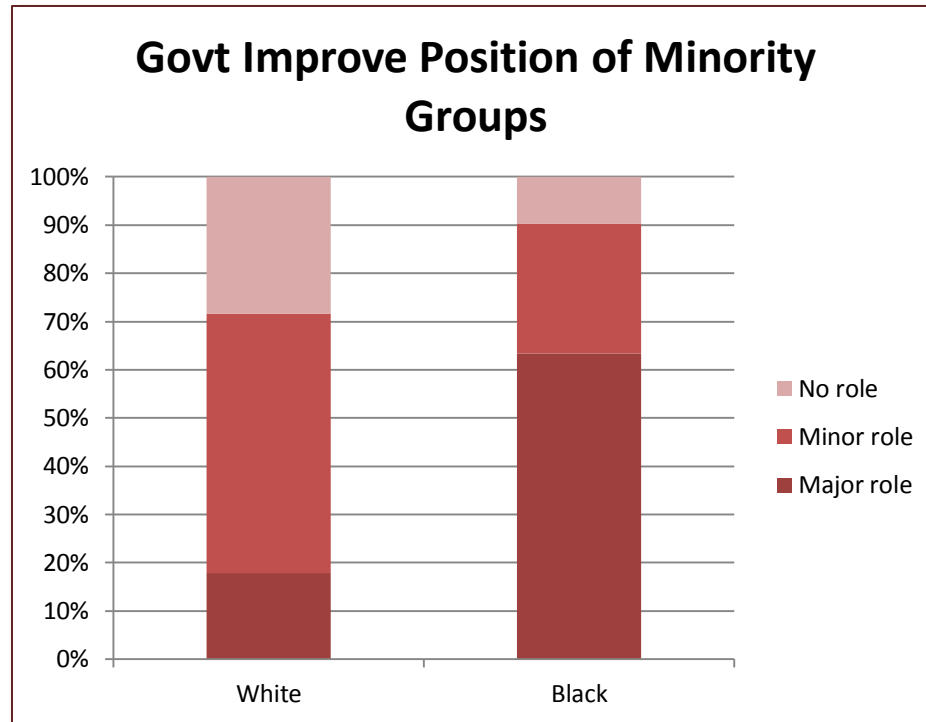

How would you Vote Today?

Race and Trust in Government

Race and Role of Government

Determinants of Support for the Mayor, 2008-2012

Justin Hamilton

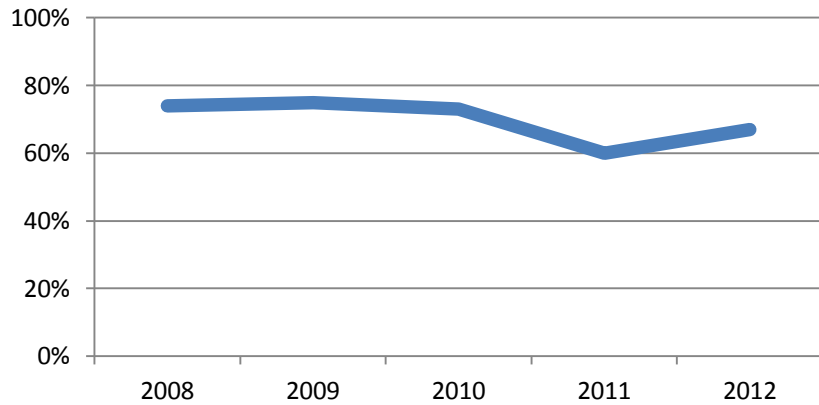

Jenea' E. Martin

Tanisha Winfrey

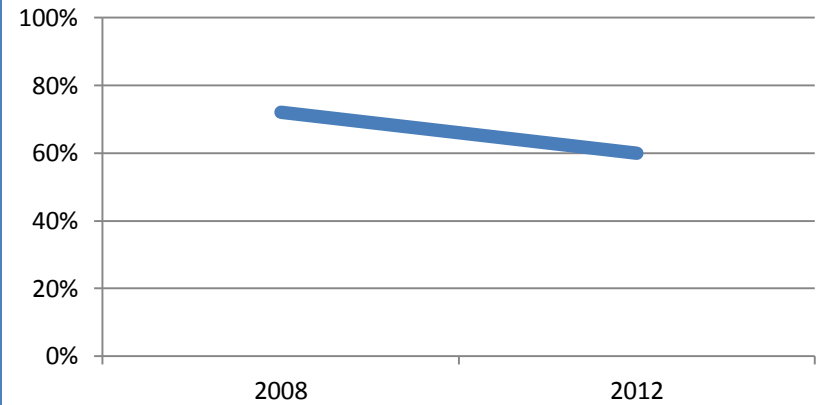

Mayor Holden, 2008-2012

Overall Trends

Approve of the way Kip Holden is handling his job as Mayor

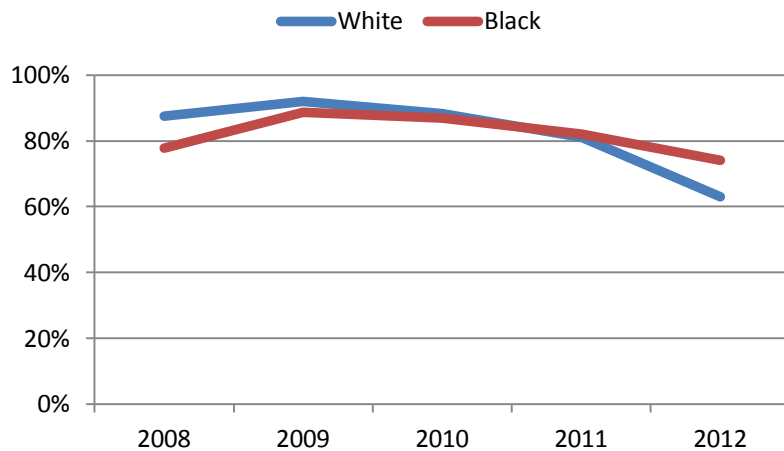

Kip Holden should be Re-Elected as Mayor

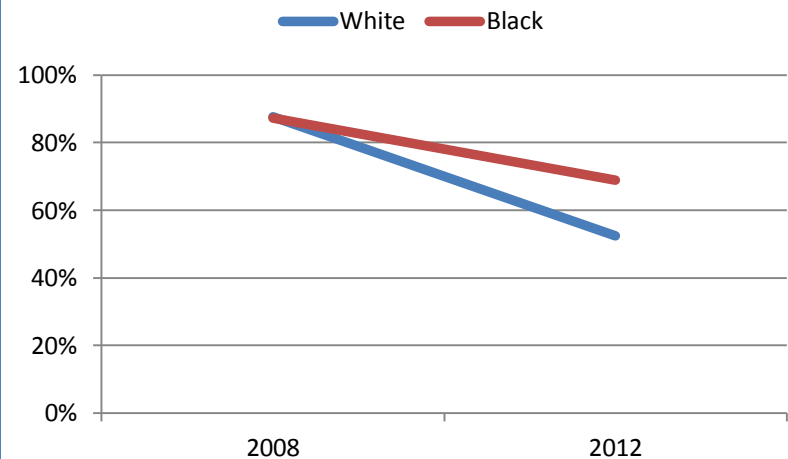

Mayor Holden, 2008-2012

Trends by Race

Approve of the way Kip Holden is handling his job as Mayor

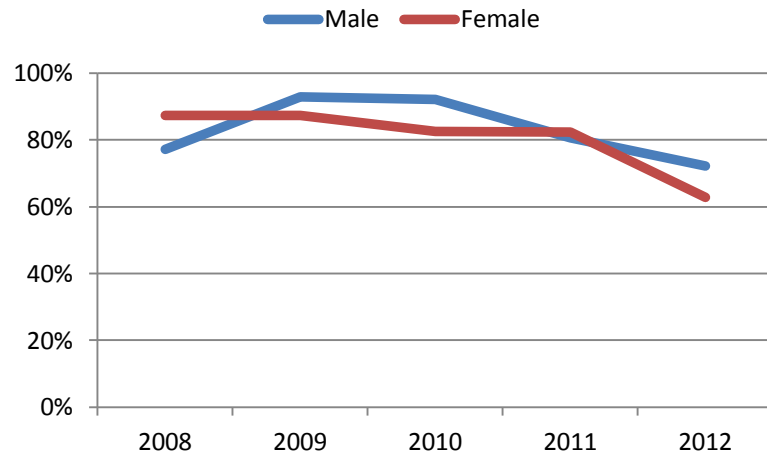

Kip Holden should be Re-Elected as Mayor

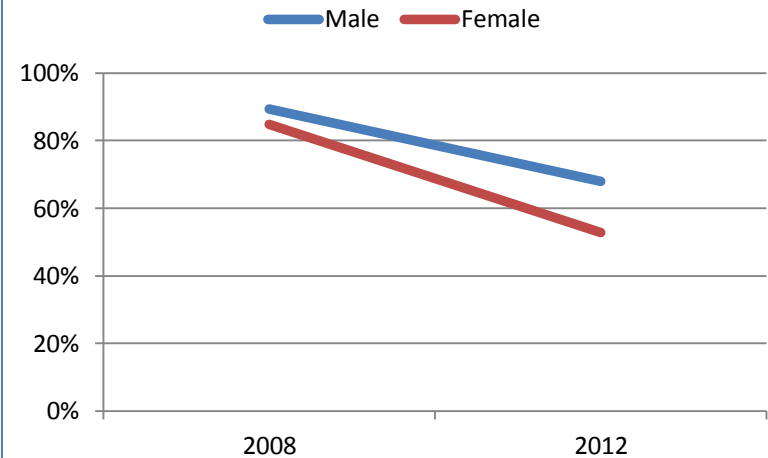

Mayor Holden, 2008-2012

Trends by Gender

Approve of the way Kip Holden is handling his job as Mayor

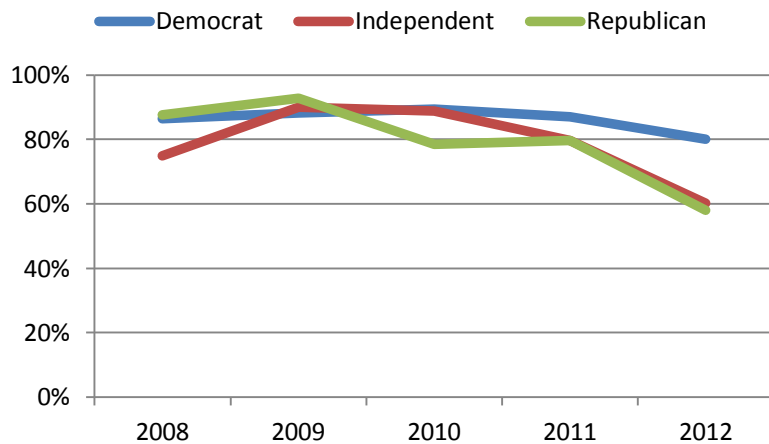

Kip Holden should be Re-Elected as Mayor

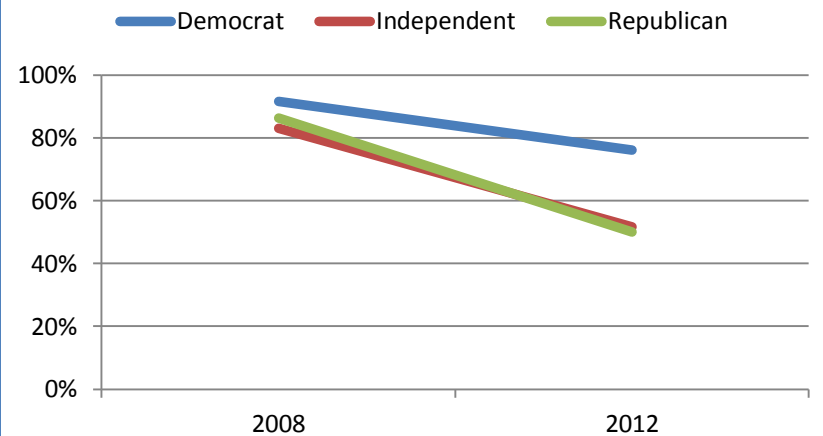

Mayor Holden, 2008-2012

Trends by Party

Approve of the way Kip Holden is handling his job as Mayor

Kip Holden should be Re-Elected as Mayor

2012 Baton Rouge Poll

N=333

Conducted by the Students of
Sociology 2211, “Sociological Methods”

LSU

Rick Weil